

Kai Yu: Professor of education and public policy in the Faculty of Education at Beijing Normal University. He earned his Ph.D. in comparative education from Beijing Normal University in 1999 and Ed.D. degree in education policy and leadership from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst in 2008. He worked as a policy analyst for the Chinese Ministry of Education from 1999 to 2003 and for the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs in 2006. At present he serves as a consultant to the UNICEF, governmental agencies and as a board member for the Zigen Rural Education and Development Fund of China.

Among other works, Dr. Yu is the author of Implementation of Inclusive Education in Beijing: Exorcizing the Haunting Specter of Meritocracy, School Culture Development in China: Perceptions of Teachers and Principals, as well as numerous articles, book chapters, and monographs on education and public policy, school improvement, and evaluation studies.

Email : kyu@bnu.edu.cn