

Welcome to World on Campus - 2018 Beijing Normal University

International Culture Festival

Hello BNU International students:

In order to promote the exchange and integration of Chinese and foreign students on campus, Beijing Normal University plans to hold World on Campus - 2018 Beijing Normal University International Culture Festival on May 20, 2018 (Sunday) at the Main building Square. Students from all over the world are welcome to register, so as to introduce and show their countries' distinguishing national culture to the Beijing Normal University teachers and students.

International Culture Festival activities are divided into the national flag parade, opening ceremony cultural performances and national cultural booths. National flag parade will invite international students as flag-bearer to hold their national flags around the square. The opening ceremony cultural performances mainly include on-stage performances of musical instruments, songs, dances and other theatrical performances to show the culture of a country, a region, distinguishing national features etc.; and also reflect the study life in Beijing Normal university. National cultural booths will have booths set up for participating countries. Students from all countries will show their cultural characteristics through pictures, clothing, food, music and jewelry.

	Activity	Mode of participation
